

Pilgrim Roots Trail Launch

Saturday 19th November

Babworth, Scrooby, Sturton le Steeple, Austerfield and Retford

Historic sites across two different counties will be opening specially on Saturday 19th November to officially launch the Pilgrim Trail, which celebrates the extraordinary courage and determination of people who sailed on the Mayflower in 1620.

Events will be taking place at churches along the Pilgrim Trail, including talks by local experts, a chance to meet the Pilgrims Embroiderers, and the Babworth Arts Festival. The locations, events and times for this are:

All Saints' Church, Babworth – 10am to 4pm

Saturday 19th November, 10am – Official opening of the Arts Festival and Launch of the Pilgrim Trail by Cllr Madeleine Richardson, Chair of Bassetlaw District Council.

Saturday 19th November at 11am – free talk by local author and historian, Adrian Gray, entitled “Nottinghamshire’s Rebellious Women”

Guided tours of the church

Meet a Pilgrim Embroiderer

Babworth Arts Festival (Sat 19th Nov – Sun 20 Nov)

Saturday 19th November – 10am to 4pm

Sunday 20th November – 12noon to 4pm

St Peter & St Paul’s Church, Sturton le Steeple

Saturday 19th Nov, 10am to 3pm

Guided tours of the church

St Wilfrid’s Church, Scrooby– 10am to 3pm.

Medieval and Tudor religious icons demonstration by artist Garry Ashton

Meet a Pilgrim Embroiderer

Guided tours of the church

St Helena’s Church, Austerfield– 10am to 3pm

The Wampanoag Perspective – find out about the people the Pilgrims met in America.

Meet a Pilgrim Embroiderer (until 12:30pm)

St. Swithun’s Church, Retford– 10am to 3pm

Help yourself activities for children

Meet a Pilgrim Embroiderer

Please check www.pilgrimroots.co.uk or www.bassetlawmuseum.org.uk for more details.

Bassetlaw Museum, 40 Grove Street, Retford, DN22 6LD, 01777 713749

